Matt. 4:4; 16:24-28

1. In this statement Jesus is revealing a mystery of His kingdom to us; the flesh is temporary, the soul is eternal...feed the soul on God's Word.
2. Jesus explains the flesh vs. soul prioritizing more in Matt. 16.

John 8:31-32

1. Followers of Christ live in and by His Word.
2. There is a liberating power in adopting a philosophy of life from which you cannot be deterred. It also supplies an unshakeable peace and sense of purpose.

1 Tim. 4:11-16

1. The Word of God is not just poetic inspiration to lift our spirits, it is a set of rules and concepts to live by.
2. The Word must work out into every aspect of our life that is seen by the world.
3. Pastors/Preachers/Teachers receive help from heaven in understanding God's Word, but only if they are diligently in it. The Word profits the Preacher to profit others.

James 1:22

God's Word is not a novel; it's not a textbook; it's God's instruction manual for how we live, and move, and have our being in the kingdom of God.
